

Crispin Vocabulary Linda, 7C

Chapter 1

Midst - In the middle of something.

(The midst of summer break was still a long way to go.)

Shroud - A piece of cloth used for wrapping dead body.

(A piece of shroud had massive amount of dust that caused sneezing.)

Taunted - To reproach in an insulting manner.

(The classmates would taunt the little boy.)

Pauper - A poor person considered as a beggar.

(The pauper was begging for food and money.)

Steward - A financial agent.

(A man who was sturdy showed his steward card.)

Deign - A superior action.

(The deign apology seemed decent.)

Transgression - An action that shows offensiveness.

(A little transgression from the Middle Ages caused a harsh penalty.)

Poaching - To stew something with liquid.

(The poached stag seemed delicious to the King.)

Forfeit - To lose something.

(The forfeiting life seemed furious.)

Chapter 2

Ceased - To stop.

(The snow ceased in the middle of January.)

Welt - A lump.

(After 10 minutes of bleeding, I felt a welt across my forehead.)

Minions - A follower.

(The minions of heaven were kind and caring.)

Parchment - A thin paper.

(The parchment was a message from the God.)

Kin - A family related to you.

(The kin of the fish are variable in kinds.)

Transfixed - To become paralyzed.

(The dry ice made my hands transfixed.)

Avail - A success or use.

(It was no avail when I chased the bus after it the bus that passed me by.)

Chapter 3

Recurrence - Something that happens again.

(In case of recurrence, we will report this to the teacher.)

Mortality - To have a single life.

(Every human-beings were born with mortality.)

Impoverished - To make something poor.

(The man impoverished his family by wasting all of his money.)

Jests - A joke or amusement.

(The jests that the joker made was no joke at all.)

Shunned - To get ignored or rejected.

(When the man begged for engagement, he was shunned.)

Plight - A misery situation.

(Who knew that she could fix her plight?)

Serf - An agricultural worker who works under Lord's estate.

(The serf of the land was ultra-careful to what they were doing.)

Mercenary - A money-greeded person.

(Most of the rich people were one of the mercenaries.)

Chapter 4

Untoward - Something unexpected.

(An untoward situation made them awkward.)

Thatch - A roof made out of such leafs.

(The thick thatch roof protected us from the blazing sun.)

Bailiff - A person who searches for the criminal.

(The murderer was hiding away from the bailiff.)

Reeve - A president of a village.

(The reeve proclaimed that all of the taxes should be payed by January.)

Mean - To lack of something.

(The mean construction was very low-qualified.)

Pinnacle - A big pointy rock.

(A pinnacle reminded me of an upside-down icecream cone.)

Meander - To follow a route.

(The east of the Red Sea meandered Nile River.)

Impenetrable - Something that is unpassable.

(The concrete built wall was impenetrable and solid.)

Fallow - A farmland that is not complete with its planting process.

(The owner of that empty fallow needed more cows to graze.)

Infidels - The nonreligious people.

(Some religion-believers loathed infidels.)

Chapters 5&6

Canonical - Divisions of time by Christians.

(The canonical hours were sacred to Christians.)

Strident - A loud and harsh voice.

(A strident voice made my ears hurt.)

Clamor - A loud and confusing voice.

(A clamor voice made me confused.)

Apprehension - An anxiety of something bad would happen.

(Every students had a feeling of apprehension before the test date.)

Implore - To beg someone desperately.

(The beggar implored for food.)

Hue - Color or shade.

(The natural hue for the plant was very unique.)

Cry - To say something in a miserable and loud voice.

(The lion cried when its babies were getting eaten by its predators.)

Chapter 7

Skittish - Nervous and shy.

(The skittish child was very scared of his performance.)

Petitions - A formal request.

(The petitions from the steward was complicated.)

Moot - An assembly held for debate.

(The moot was important for the King in Medieval times.)

Treason - The action of betraying.

(Lord Furnival treated all talking as a treason.)

Plight - Miserable events.

(Every event that occurred for Asta's son was a plight.)

Curfew - An hour of which people are suppose to stay indoors at night.

(When the curfew bell rang, all of the people were suppose to stay indoors.)

Chapter 8

Alb - A white clothe that covers from neck to foot, esp. worn by Christian.

(The alb is worn for Christians who pray in a church.)

Tonsured - To shave in a crown-shape.

(The old Priest had a nice tonsured head.)

Sanctuary - A safe place for evacuating.

(The sanctuary from predicted hurricane was safe for young children.)

Tallow - A hard fatty substance from animal fats.

(Tallows are usually made for soap or candles.)

Genuflect - To knelt, lower body and put one leg out as a sign of respect.

(The respectful soldier genuflected right in front of the King.)

Distraught - To be deeply upset.

(The sign of distraught filled in his face when the bird pooped on him.)

Sullen - To be bad-tempered and gloomy.

(The child became sullen when she lost her parents.)

Scrutinize - To observe closely at something.

(The thief scrutinized his surroundings very closely after he robbed the bank.)

Siege - Enemy forces that surround a town.

(The rat that surrounded by cats was a siege.)

Chapter 9/10

Garment - A clothing.

(The old ragged garment needed to be swoon with quilts.)

Hag - An old woman who is referred as witch.

(The old hag yelled at the children.)

Crone - An old woman that is thin and ugly.

(The crone of the village was about to die of disease.)

Foreboding - A warning of something bad.

(The foreboding walk of the midnight was chilling.)

Skirting - To go past the edge of something.

(The thief skirted around the city to hide his wanted face.)

Chapter 11/12

Hoist - Raising body by a pullable object.

(The boy was able to hoist up himself up from the river by the wooden stick.)

Tumult - A loud and confusing voice.

(While I was reading a book, all of that tumult in the cafeteria distracted me.)

Albeit - A word A.K.A. although.

(When he was rushing to her classroom, albeit she was slowing down.)

Gross - Completely or largely.

(That april fool grossed the fool out of me.)

Folly - A foolishness.

(The folly mouse who greed for cheese got trapped by a mouse trap.)

Forage - An extended search of an area.

(The CSI agents foraged around the crime scene to search for any evidence.)

Chapter 13/14

Dire - Extremely solemn.

(The dire eyes of his made me anxious.)

Besieged - To capture such person by army force.

(The Soviet Union besieged poor little kid.)

Famished - Extremely hungry.

(The famished dog's stomach was very flat.)

Distended - To swell because of pressure.

(As the airplane ride continued on for 5 hours, my legs got distended.)

Blighted - To get infected by a plant disease caused by fungi.

(My hands got blighted as I rubbed my hands on a fungi.)

Pillage - The robbery during war.

(Every war, had people who pillaged around the village.)

Chapter 15

Sustenance - Food that is for your nourishment.

(My every sustenance was nothing left but crumbs.)

Dell - A small valley among the trees.

(All I can see was dell surrounded by the beautiful flowers.)

Hamlet - A small settlement, referred as home.

(The hamlet of our village was very elegant.)

Daub - Thick clay used for clothing.

(The daubing process for sculpture in clay is important.)

Wattle - Material used for making fences or walls.

(The thickness of wattle built a sturdy wall.)

Clotted - The materials that stick together.

(After 20 minutes, I felt blood clotting.)

Trepidation - A fear or feeling that something will happen.

(The kid who was afraid had a trepidation of war.)

Pestilence - A disease that causes death.

(Cancer is one of the pestilences.)

Chapters 16/17

Garbed - A characteristic dressing style.

(The Korean girl was garbed with Han-Bouk.)

Ruddy - To have a color of red.

(His ruddy face indicated suffocation.)

Raucously - A disturbing harsh noise.

(Young kids screamed raucously when they starved.)

Unkempt - To have a messy appearance.

(His unkempt hair made flies buzzing around his head.)

Cur - An aggressive dog in a poor condition.

(The cur who lived downtown barked so loud.)

Doddering - To tremble because of old age.

(As the old man started doddering, he was about to fall down.)

Glutton - A greedy gorging eater.

(Many men were one of the glutton eaters.)

Sweetmeats - A sweet food or treat.

(Every kids begged for sweetmeats)

Loot - The good properties getting stolen by the enemy in war.

(The pirate war looted each other's treasure.)

Tyranny - A nation under an aggressive government.

(Tyranny causes rebellion and complaints from all over the people.)

Prudence - Acting and showing care for the future.

(Crispin's prudence behavior caused him to go on a long journey to the south.)