

Father Quinel reveals three things in chapter 8. What are they? What does he promise to reveal later?

He reveals that his mother was able to read and write, that Asta's son's real name is Crispin, and that Lord Furnival has returned from the wars and is very ill, and is expected to die soon. Father Quinel promises to tell Crispin about his father.