Entry - 32

- Reflect on the group work portion of your commercial project. How did you measure up? Do you believe that you contributed to the group as much as others? What was your role? Did you learn anything new about yourself and how you work in groups during this project?

Entry - 33

- Pick a character from a day time soap opera. Put him or her in a stranded commuter train. Write about what he or she is feeling or thinking at that moment.

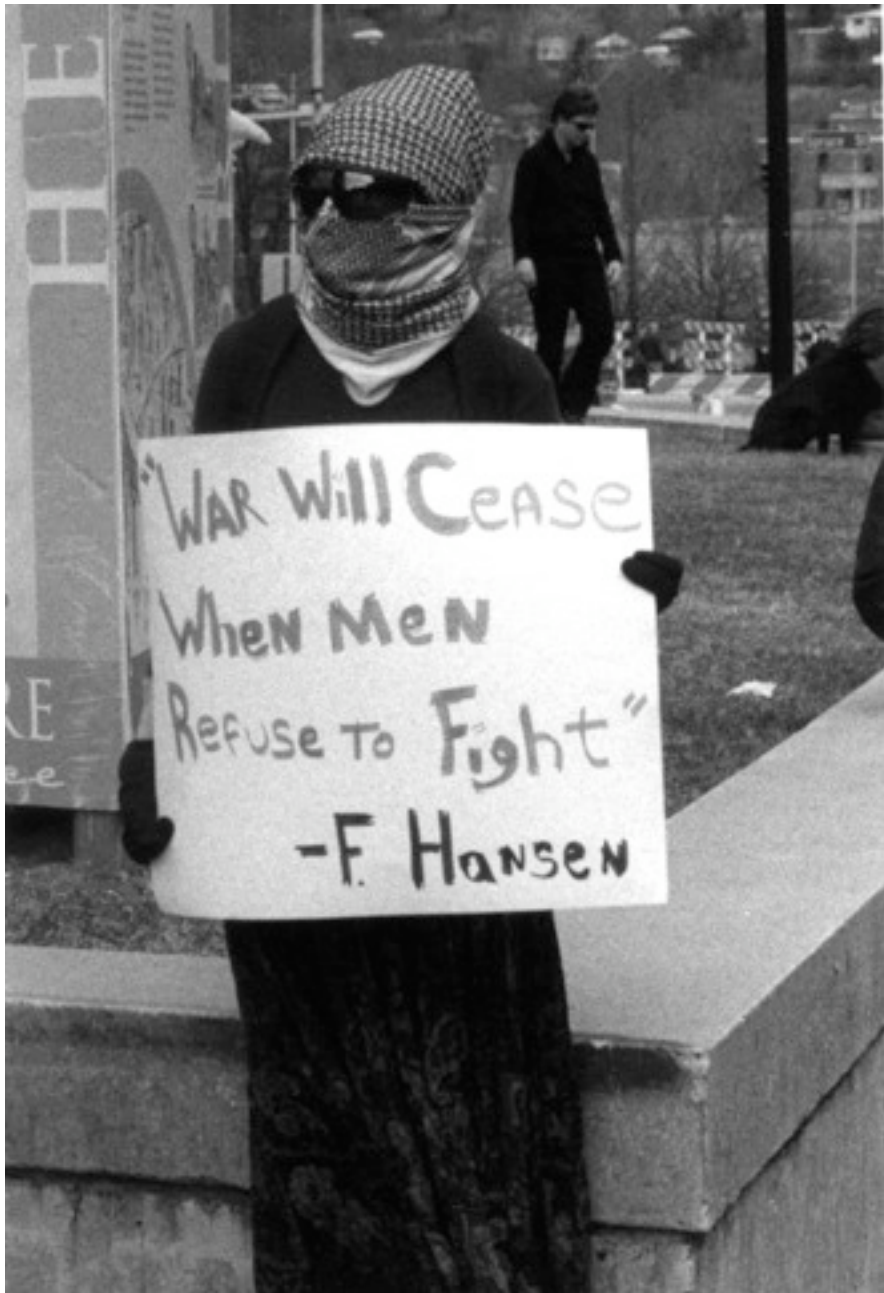

Entry - 34

- You can tell a lot about a person by what he or she says. Here are some things Grandma Dorothy always says:
- “You can never be too dressed up.”
- “A woman should never ask a man to dance.”
- “He is quite a snappy dresser.”
- Based on these sentences, imagine what kind of person Grandma Dorothy is. Write a paragraph describing her. Feel free to use any or all of her quotations.

Entry - 35

- Write from the point of view of a freshly scrubbed floor.

Entry - 36

Is there a cause you care about a lot? How far would you go to stand up for what you believe?

Entry - 37

- Write about a time you hid from someone, or a time you disguised who you really were.

Entry - 38
