

Painting-Poem Exercise

Diaz (French, 1808-1876)

Foret de Fontainebleau

1856

The Forest

By Sabin Min

The unknown forest
Has trees everywhere
Various colored trees
And I move in and in

Step by step in the land of trees
Can see the blue sky
Very quiet and peaceful
Very clean air, no pollution

The real beauty is this
Leaves everywhere
Many trees and animals
Enjoy and feel the nature!