

1. character—the mental and moral qualities distinctive to an individual
2. conflict—to come to disagreement between two opposing forces internal conflict—conflict within the character's mind external conflict—a conflict with some outside force
3. foreshadowing—show or indicate beforehand
4. mood— state or quality of feeling at that time(how we feel when we read the work)
5. protagonist— a leading character in literary work
6. antagonist— a person who is opposed against;opponent
7. setting—surrounding or environment of anything(time and place)
8. symbol—something used for or regarded as representing an idea of something else
9. theme— a central message